II. PUBLIC COMMENT (Five minutes per speaker)

Lamont Jackson met with the Chancellor last Friday to discuss candidate forms for open seats on the Board of Trustees and what kind of support they will offer to candidates. There have been talks about hosting polling stations on city college campuses. The next SAC meeting will take place at City Hall on January 15th at 9 AM; all candidates are invited.

I. PRELIMINARY ITEMS

1.05: Region Senator Reports

Senator Khan discusses the importance of teamwork, self-regulation, and accountability within the SSCCC. A debrief of December's SSCCC meeting has been distributed in PowerPoint form via Region VII Google Groups. Senator Khan requested feedback on his method of disseminating information, as it is the first time he has used Google Slides.

Senator Noyola announced the Chancellor's Office refused to extend a line of credit for the SSCCC's Spring 2015 General Assembly. Khan emphasizes that the General Assembly will take place regardless of these complications.

IV. REPORTS

4.01: ASO Reports

El Camino College— ECC aims to place recycling bins in the Natural Science building; their retreat will take place on January 15th.

Los Angeles City College— LACC elected three new senators, held their holiday potluck, and are currently getting ready for next semester in which they will host a Pride Walk and two LGTBQ brunches.

Los Angeles Harbor College— LAHC announced Vice President Marrufo will take over as President, as current President Bivinetto will be transferring in the Spring. Their executive board plans to meet over the Winter holiday. Constitution/Bylaws and Committee reforms are on the horizon and they look forward to working with other colleges on events.

Los Angeles Pierce College— As the Board of Trustees will not renew LAPC's food trucks, the ASO has been working on renewing them.

Santa Monica College— SMC is preparing for their Winter retreat. They also plan to invite a mediator to resolve their ASO's inter-board conflicts.

West Los Angeles College— WLAC has been working on SREGS with Pierce; they plan to reach out to district ASO's for feedback and information.
